

Medway, MA-For Immediate Release
This Is The End... Tales of the Apocalypse
An Eschatological Art Exhibit
Presented by Visions Gallery and Art and Discord
January 4, 2009-February 9, 2009
Opening Reception January 4, 2009 1:00pm-5:00pm

Visions Art Gallery, in collaboration with Art and Discord, is excited to announce the upcoming exhibition: "This is the End... Tales of the Apocalypse" . Eschatological stories are told in cultures around the world; the tales describe the conclusion of Ages or Civilizations, the termination of the World or the final moments of the Universe. This exhibit features over two dozen local and national artists, each of which shares a unique vision of the End of the World.

There will be two floors of art, with over 40 pieces on exhibit, exploring the theme in a myriad of styles and media, including photography, digital painting and manipulation, traditional oil and acrylic painting, as well as collage constructs. Many of these cutting-edge pieces have never been shown before, having been created just for this exhibit! Participating artists include: Sara Lynch, Doug Murray, Joseph Murawski, Michelle Knowlen, Bruce Barton, Matthew Friese, Justin Mycofsky, Ellen Alt, Stephen Everett, Mark Phelan, Daniel Petrov, Rebecca Memoli, Kevin Bias, Douglas Gast, EJay Kahn, Peter Bates, Brice Salek, Kevin Berube, Michael Pontieri, Jeremy Dyer, Roger Soule, Susan Paladino, Ryan DuBois, Leah Preiss and more...
